CHIEF JUSTICE FULLER GRANTS A STAY OF PROCEEDINGS.

DISTRICT-ATTORNEY MILCHRIST NONPLUSSED BY THE REMARKS FROM THE BENCH-COMMERCIAL TRAVELLERS DAY SPOILED BY RAIN.

Chicago, June 10.-Chief Justice Fuller to-day entered a suspension of the temporary injunction which had been granted by the United States Circuit Court to restrain the World's Columbian Exposition from opening the grounds and heddings on Sunday. He set the hearing of the case in the United States Court of Appeals for Thursday morning next at 10 o'clock, and ordered that notice be given to Judge Bunn, of Madison, and Judge Allen, of springfield, to be in attendance.

The decision of Chief Justice Fuller in the matter of granting a stay in the sunday opening case has caused quite a little flutter this afternoon. When it was announced a few days ago that the case was to be brought before him the feeling seemed to enter every one's mind that the gates of the Fair would not be closed to morrow, no matter what might come to pass in the Sundays that are to come. As the highest judicial authority in the land, Justice Fuller's de-cision has given the people in favor of Sunday opening considerable encouragement, doubtless much more than they should induige, but he presented the case in such a mild and yet such a foreible manner to District-Attorney Milchrist that that officer seemed to be just a little bit non-plassed. The Chief Justice announced it as his duty Chief to sit in the case. He said that he had anticipated it, and that he had parted with the shares of stock that he had in the association. Addressing Mr. Milchrist, who had argued against the granting of the stay, the Chief Justice asked: "But what objection can you have to the granting of this stay of proceedings? Why should not a suspension be allowed pending a final settlement? Why is this case different from any other case! It doesn't occur to me why the ordinary course should not be taken in this case that would be pursued in others. I cannot see why the stay should not be granted until the appeal is heard and decided. This If the stay be granted it means, I suppose, that the Fair will be open to morrow. I cannot understand how any injury will result from the issuing of the supersedeas. The question is not being considered one of morals. How can it inconvenience you!" District-Attorney Milehrist had nothing to say

The Clingman injunction suit came up for hearing ngain in Judge stein's court to-day. Mr. Mason asked to have the restraining order granted by the court against the Exposition Directors extended to the South Park Commissioners. He entered the appearance of Attorney-General Moloney in the case, who asked the amendment to the injunction in the cume asked the amendment to the injunction in the rame of the people. Mr. Green, representing the South Park Commissioners, entered a disclaimer in objecting to the motion. He said that the Park Commissioners had nothing to do with it. The Court granted further time to the Park Commissioners to prepare an answer. Mr. Meson could that Attempted function in the rame of the prepare of t Mason said that Attorney-General Moloney would file a bill is the name of the people asking to have Jackson Park kept open, and that he would ask all the Chancery Judges to sit in the hearing of the case. Judge Stein put the hearing of the motion down for Thursday morning next.

Mr. Mason said that if the Fair was closed tomorrow he would have all the Fair officers attached for contempt of court in disobeying the preliminary injunction granted by Judge Stein.

Commercial travellers' day was sadly marred by the mile torm. The members of the Tr vellers I rot etter Association came early in the day to the Fair, and at-tended a reception in the Greene Coun'y room of the building erected by the state of Misseuri. Sight-seeing was indulged in until 1 o'clock. On the platform were the Vice-Precident of the United States, Mayor Harrison, ex-Governor Richard T. Rubbard, of Texas; James M. Greer, of Memphis; George S. McGrew, President of the Travellers' Protective Association; John A. Lee C. S. Leeb, president elect; ciation; John A. Lee, of St. Louis, president-elect; Henry T. Kent, of St. Louis, attorney of the association, and Judge Edgar E. Bryant, of Arkansas. In the gallery was Sousa's band, which played favorite alls between the eloquent and stirring speeches. Mr.

Metirew presided.

Mayor Harrison said he was generally called upon a succession of showers from half-past 10 o'clock this forenoon until half-past 12, and each seemed to be more severe than its pred-cessor. Then the disturbance ceased but the day has remained cloudy, and continues so at the going down of the sun.

On reaching the pier at the Exposition the Princess was transferred from the yacht to the Director General's launch and was thus conveyed to the Victoria House. At thi, place the party was met by a representative of Director-General Davis, and all were excepted to carriages and driven themee to the Woman's Building, where a brief reception was their. She was delayed for three quarters of an hour at the pier attending to her baggage. She was driven to the home of her mother, Mrs. William Astor, No. 530 Fifth-ave. Mrs. Drayton will probably go to Newport in a few days. She is a sister of John Jacob Astor.
